RENEWED PETITION UNDER §1.137(b)

To the Commissioner:

This Renewed Petition is in response to the Notice from the Office of Petitions dated July 20, 2005. Applicant is submitting the requested fees and items and respectfully renews its Petition. These items enclosed include:

1. The formal drawings, as the Reply referenced in item 1 of the Notice.
2. The RCE fee of $395.
3. The Petition fee of $700.
4. The Issue fee of $750.
5. The Issue fee form, completed.

Applicant does note, as an aside, that the Notice suggested that the Petition to Revive was entered February 26, 2004. In fact, the Petition was sent July 31, 2002 as noted on the Certificate of Service. After some time passed in attempting to determine the status, it was February 24, 2004, at the request of Larry Schwartz at the PTO, that applicant faxed a copy of the previously filed Petition to the PTO. Previously the Petition could not be located. It was ultimately determined that the file was lost. Consequently the filing date of the Petition should have been July 31, 2002. This date is significant because the procedure at that time (2002) did in fact provide for a Continuing Application (CPA), as applicant submitted. The rule cited in the Notice that referred to the elimination of CPA procedures was effective July 14, 2003. Consequently, no submission (with an RCE) was in fact necessary when the Petition to Revive was filed in 2002. Moreover, the office notes that the fees were not enclosed. The entire Petition, with check for the Petition fee and CPA fee were enclosed as referenced in the certificate of mailing dated July 31, 2002.

Nevertheless, to comply with the current Notice, applicant is submitting the items and fees referenced.

Applicant respectfully requests that the Petition to Revive be reconsidered, with these submissions.

Respectfully submitted,
